Dear Harold:

I have a criminologist in my Office who could give us a competent opinion concerning the item you refer to in your letter of 1 July 1970. If you send the material along, please be specific as to what you want evaluated, what questions answered, etc.

I hope that your new lines of inquiry prove fruitful.

I do hope that later this summer, my wife and I will be able to take advantage of your kind invitation. It certainly sounds delightful.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril
